

Goochland Special Education Advisory Committee (SEAC) for Parents & Teachers

Is SEAC for you?

If you are a Parent:

- Does your child have an Individual Education Plan (IEP)?
- Do you think your child may need special education services?
- Do you wonder what other resources may help your child?

If you are a Teacher or Staff Member:

- Do you work with students with IEPs?
- Are you looking for additional resources to help your students?

Then SEAC is the place for you...and we need YOU!

The goals of the SEAC are:

1. support, advocate, and advise on special education matters in Goochland County;
2. educate parents and teachers on resources available to help children who use special education services and their families; and
3. be a resource to support and improve services for children who use special education amenities in Goochland County

SEAC meetings are:

When: Last Monday of each month from 6:00pm – 7:00pm (schedule below)

Where: School Board Office

2938 River Road West, Building I, Goochland, VA 23063

SEAC meeting agendas will include:

- Updates and discussion of initiatives from the Goochland Director of Exceptional Education
- Talks from guest speakers to discuss topics raised by parents or teachers (see below for schedule)
- Topics that are relevant to SEAC goals
- An open comment period with Q&A (if applicable)
